BRYAN ADDRESSES LARGE CROWD AT EIGHTH AND CLAY

Declares That Those Who Favor Roosevelt's Policy Should Vote for a Democratic United States Senator, as Beckham Would Support Him.

HIS APPEAL TO PARTY VOTE.

Bryan had no message for Paducah.

The Peerless One on his special train backed to the Eighth and Clay streets crossing at 3:20 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and was greeted by some 1,800 people, including children from the north side school, who showed what attracted them there by discussing Mr. Bryan all the time he was talking.

He was hoarse and tired, and every body knew about what he would say. "He's getting lots older, isn't he?" was a frequent comment.

When the orator of the Platte was blowing pellets at the national administration, somebody in the audience exclaimed sotto voce: "Bet you that train would have been on time if Roosevelt had been on it."

Mr. Bryan approved Roosevelt's course in the main, but criticized the president's method of execution. Mr. Bryan thanked him for the trusts he has "busted," but was quite concerned over there being so many more to "bust," and he handled the subject in the same airy manner, which characterized his discussion of the money question in 1900 as if "trust busting" consisted of sticking pins in balloons.

Bryan's appeal to the Roosevelt men was unique. He said in substance that Roosevelt had to appeal to Democrats in congress to support his measures, and therefore Governor Beckham in the senate will do more to support Roosevelt's measures than a Republican would. Of course, Governor Beckham did not say how far he would go in supporting a Republican administration.

Then Mr. Bryan adjured the Democrats, not only to vote their ticket straight, but to vote it more numerously, if possible, so that the Republican newspapers couldn't boast of a falling off in the Democratic vote.

Bryan told a number of stories in his inimitable manner, that were more entertaining than illuminating. Congressman Ollie James introduced the speaker, who talked from the rear platform for a half hour. At intervals Governor Beckham and Auditor Hager were seen on the rear platform; but there was no apparent recognition from the crowd, who were there to see Bryan.

While the crowd was waiting for the train, Judge J. K. Hendrick, Capt. W. C. Clark and Police Judge David Cross spoke from a wagon drawn close to the track.

The Bryan special went from here to Mayfield and returned about 6:30, bound for Murray. The train passed through here early this morning for Louisville.

Princeton Not Overly Enthusiastic Over the Nebraska's Presence.

Princeton, Ky., Oct. 9.—The reception accorded William Jennings Bryan here was the least enthusiastic that he has received on his entire tour of the western end of the state. Not over 600 people in the crowd heard him, and about half of these were Republicans.

CALLOWAY COUNTY WILL VOTE ON THE QUESTION OF ISSUING BONDS FOR NEW COURT HOUSE

Proposition Lost Out Once But Probably Will Carry—City Bond Issue

Murray, Ky., Oct. 9. (Special).—

The Calloway fiscal court has ordered a vote taken at the general election in November on the question of issuing bonds to the amount of $35,000 for the erection of a county court house. Calloway county has been without a court house for two years. The old one having burned down. A vote was taken on the issuance of bonds at the last election, but failed to carry by a narrow margin. The old scores and differences that have existed in the county for several years are somewhat healed now, and it is believed that the bond issue will carry at the coming election. The county and circuit courts are now held in a warehouse building that has been rented and fitted up for the purpose.

City Bond Issue.

A vote will also be taken by the city of Murray on the question of issuing city bonds for the purpose of buying the electric lighting plant, and the installation of a water works system. A vote carried at the last election for the issuance of 4 per cent bonds, but the mayor could not place them at that rate of interest. Fives will be floated if the bond issue again carries.

First Frost Does No Damage.

People from the country and early risers in the city report a slight frost last night, though not enough to kill vegetables, the only crop that frost can destroy now. Tobacco has been cut and housed for ten days, while there is little corn that is late enough to be injured by frost. The fact that frost came late this fall has been a great boon to farmers on account of a bigger portion of their crops being late.

STANDARD PROFITS.

New York, Oct. 9.—Some idea of the large business of the Standard Oil company was gained today when Frank B. Kellogg, deputy attorney general, in the government suit, showed from transcripts from books that profits aggregated a sum almost equal to the national debt of the United States, which in 1903 was almost ten billions.

HARRIMAN VOTES SEVENTY PERCENT OF I. C. STOCK

New York, Oct. 9.—Out of a total of 950,450 shares of Illinois Central stock votable at the annual meeting on October 16 next, it is estimated that approximately 675,000 shares, or 71 per cent, of the total number of votes, will be voted by E. H. Harriman, and that Stuyvesant Fish will not be able to vote more than 95,000 shares, or about 10 per cent. Unless there is some decided change, therefore, the final vote should be somewhat as follows: Shares votable, 950,450; pledged to Harriman, 675,000; pledged to Fish, 95,000; not voting, 180,040. A year ago President Fish controlled 690,695 shares out of a total of 692,546 shares voting.

MILLION DOLLARS WILL BE DONATED BY MEN OF CHURCH

Richmond, Va., Oct. 9.—For the first time in the history of the Protestant Episcopal church in America the men will unite in making an offering which will not be used for current expenses, but be devoted to some permanent and monumental work.

This takes place at the Episcopal general convention, the second week of which was opened yesterday. It is generally expected that the offering this week will considerably exceed $1,000,000.

The Sunday school exhibit will be no less important and interesting. An amendment to the constitution, proposing that the name of the Episcopal church in America be changed to that of "the American Church," was introduced before the house of deputies today.

Dr. Huntington of the committee on constitution reported in favor of the amendment.

A unique ceremony was performed when 20 deaf mutes of Richmond and Manchester received the ordinances of baptism.

TOBACCO BOOKS CLOSE TOMORROW WITH MIDNIGHT

Tomorrow night the books of the Dark Tobacco association will be closed and those who have not pledged their 1907 crop of tobacco will be barred from doing so. Reports received at association headquarters in Paducah today indicate that already 85 per cent of the crop in the "black patch" has been pledged, while it is expected that a large per cent of the acreage that has not been pledged and has not been bought by the independent and trust buyers by tomorrow afternoon will also be pledged. In fact, a prominent grower, who was at headquarters this afternoon, stated that he expected a larger acreage pledged tomorrow than on any day during the season. The growers having issued an ultimatum to the buyers that they must pay the prices or their crop will go into the association tomorrow.

Another fact that will cause farmers to pledge their unsold tobacco will be the policy of the association managers being to strictly adhere to the rule not to allow any tobacco to be pledged after the final limit.

The 10,000 strikers made no demonstration, but two strike-breakers were arrested, one charged with assault and the other with drunkenness.

THOUSANDS GREET BRYAN AT MURRAY ON HIS FIRST VISIT

Murray, Ky., Oct. 9.—More than 5,000 people heard William J. Bryan here last night. The big association tobacco warehouse being crowded to its capacity. Many were forced to stand, while the windows and doors were crowded with throngs of curious people, anxious to get a glimpse of the Democratic leader.

Mr. Bryan spoke for an hour making practically the same speeches as at other points in the district. Beginning his speech with a brief reference to state issues he launched off into national issues. The large crowd present is not taken as indicative of any great interest in the present campaign, because of the fact that Bryan had never visited this place before. His coming at any time of the year whether there was a campaign on or not would have brought out the same crowd.

Bryan's special was a little late in reaching here and several speeches were made by local politicians while the crowd was waiting.

10,000 at Mayfield.

AMAZING TALE OF LOOT IS TOLD BY THOMAS RYAN'S PARTNER UNDER EXAMINATION

Three Quarters of Million Dollars Pure Graft in Deal for Wall and Cortland Street Ferries in New York City

BRADY TOOK A BIT HIMSELF.

New York, Oct. 9.—Anthony N. Brady, partner of Thomas F. Ryan, took the witness stand today before the public service commission and told the astounding story of the Wall and Cortland street ferries railway deal.

The road cost him about $200,000, but when the late Wm. C. Whitney forced him to sell the franchise he was paid by the Metropolitan Securities company $965,607.19, of which by private agreement, $250,000 was retained by Brady to compensate him, while the balance was divided into five equal parts and distributed by Brady's personal check to the following beneficiaries: Thomas F. Ryan, Wm. C. Whitney, P. A. B. Widener, Thomas Dolan, Wm. L. Elkins.

The board of directors approved the sale and the entire sum is still carried on the books of the company as an asset.

A spellbound audience listened to this amazing confession of loot, which far transcended any revelation that was brought out by the insurance investigation. Nothing to palliate the damning facts was offered by Mr. Brady, and when Delancey Nicol sought to place Mr. Ryan in a better light by cross-examining the witness he merely brought the facts out more clearly.

A quarter of a million was a high price for the franchise. That and three-quarters of a million more, representing $715,607 of pure loot, went from the pockets of the Metropolitan stockholders into those of the five men named and has never since been accounted for.

STANDARD NEVER DISSOLVED UNDER ORDER OF COURT

Two Staggering Blows Dealt by Inquisitor Kellogg to Oil Trust During Investigation of New Jersey Corporation in Court.

IS BUILDING UP A MONOPOLY

New York, Oct. 9.—Two staggering blows were given the oil trust today by Inquisitor Kellogg at the hearing of the government's suit to dissolve the Standard Oil company of New Jersey. One of the hits was made when Mr. Kellogg brought out, by means of records of the liquidating trustees, which were introduced in evidence, the fact that the dissolution of the trust which ostensibly occurred in 1892, never took place, and that the control today is the same as it was before its dismemberment was ordered.

The other blow landed when, under a mysterious account of "bills receivable" in the records of the Anglo-American company, a Standard concern, an asset of several million dollars was discovered charged to J. B. McDonald. In this account, it is believed, further investigation will show the source of the funds of the mysterious English company, which is known as the General Industrial Development company, and which purchased the Manhattan Oil company and the Security Oil company, of Texas. Both of these purchases, if proven to have been made by the Standard, will show conclusively that the trust is using every means to establish a complete monopoly.

TWELVE INNINGS TO A DEADLOCK

Tigers and Cubs Struggle for Championship

Nearly Twenty-Five Thousand Fans
Witness Great Game On Chicago Grounds.

CLOUD ENDS THE CONTEST.

Chicago, Oct. 9.—Detroit and Chicago, leaders of the American and National leagues respectively, played 12 strenuous innings to a tie here yesterday in the first game of the series for the baseball championship of the world. The contest was replete with sensational situation and when Umpire O'Day of the National league called "play off account of darkness" most of the 24,377 spectators sighed with relief and went home well satisfied with the outcome. Overall and Donovan were the opposing pitchers, but the former was taken out when Chicago had tied the score in the ninth and had men on bases waiting to score the winning runs. Moran was sent in to bat for him but before the latter had time to deliver the needed hit, Evers tried to steal home and was out by a narrow margin, retiring the side. Reulbach finished the game, and for three ject, and Mr. Hanford's presentation this year will be more spectacular than ever before. A scenic revival of "Antony and Cleopatra" has been in his mind for a number of seasons past and last year's production of "Julius Caesar" formed a splendid preface for this year's representation of Antony no longer a triumphant statesman but the ill-fated lover.

Saturday, October 12, is Mr. Hanford's date at the Kentucky. At the matinee he will play the "Merchant of Venice." The production of "The Merchant of Venice" which Mr. Charles B. Hanford will offer this season is distinguished by a brilliancy of cast and a wealth of scenery calculated to outdo all the splendid productions of the play that he has previously made. Mr. Hanford has made a sincere study of the character of Shylock; one which takes into account not only the relentless vengeance of the role, but the dignity and sentiment which must attach to a man so impassioned in his devotion to race and home. Mr. Hanford's Shylock is one of the creations of the American drama which stand forth like beacon lights to mark the artistic progress of a nation. It is a performance worthy of study by the younger generation of players who aspire to interpret Shakespeare. Miss Wilson still appears as Mr. Hanford's leading lady and in the character of Portia has opportunities which will meet with the hearty approval of her many admirers. This is one of the plays in which Shakespeare presents a sprightly and approving study of feminine characters. Miss Wilson has given it an interpretation which ranks among the standard portrayals of the modern stage.

Charles B. Hanford.

A candid citizen of a western state once remarked, "My family only goes to two shows every season, one is Barnum and Bailey's and the other is Charles B. Hanford's." From the circus to the classics, from the sawdust arena to the forum is a far cry, yet the compliment was a great one, and reflected the intellectual sincerity of the man who uttered it. Barnum and Bailey strove every season to surpass all previous circus achievements, including their own, and Mr. Hanford has done the same thing in his chosen line of endeavor. He has sought to bring to his performance all that could add interest and charm to his Shakespearean productions. He has searched the world of books and surveyed available acting talent as diligently as the agents of the great motion picture show have explored the jungle in quest of strange creatures. It was a comparison which might flatter both parties who were made its sub-innings retired Detroit's heavy batlers without the semblance of a hit. Donovan had a shade the better of his rivals in that he struck out 12 opposing batsmen.

His second base on balls was costly but with good support he would have won his game. The game was evenly contested. Both teams broke under fire, Chicago mixing two of its errors with two hits in the eighth when Detroit scored all three of its runs while the visitors returned the compliment in the next inning allowing Chicago to tie the score. Captain Coughlin's error came in this round and was costly. With runners on first and second he let an easy grounder from Evers' bat get away from him filling the bases. After that two runs came across, one on a passed ball. While this was going on Overall was retired and the visitors had to fall before Reulbach's speedy delivery in the growing darkness.

CONFIRMED PROOF.

Residents of Paducah Cannot Doubt What Has Been Twice Proved.

In gratitude for complete relief from aches and pains of bad backs—from distressing kidney ills—thousands have publicly recommended Doan's Kidney Pills. Residents of Paducah, who so testified years ago, now say their cures were permanent. This testimony doubly proves the worth of Doan's Kidney Pills to Paducah kidney sufferers.

J. A. Houser, 809 Tennessee avenue, Paducah, Ky., says: "When I gave a statement for publication in the year 1900 telling of the great benefit I had received through the use of Doan's Kidney Pills which I had procured at Du Bois, Son & Co.'s drug store, it was absolutely true as I had been a sufferer from backache and kidney trouble all my life, and they greatly relieved me. Now after a lapse of almost seven years I am very glad to confirm that statement and to again recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to all kidney sufferers as a quick and reliable remedy."

Alexander T. Stewart was the first "merchant prince." Today we have any number of merchant princes, even kings, and if Stewart were alive he would find very lively competition. But he had some rules that might be copied by the merchants who have in some directions followed him. One of his rules was this: "Never praise an article; ask the customer what is desired, and if you have it offer it without comment; name the price; if the customer is not pleased allow him or her to depart and make no comment; the article must stand on its own merits. It is the customer's privilege to buy or to decline to buy." —New York Press.

His Dear Old Mother.

"My dear old mother, who is now 83 years old, thrives on Electric Bitters," writes W. B. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. That's the way Electric Bitters affect the aged, and the same happy results follow in all cases of female weakness and general debility. Weak, puny children too, are greatly strengthened by them. Guaranteed also for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, by all druggists, 50c.

A. E. WILLSON TOOK THE CROWD AWAY

Effort to Break up His Meeting Failed Utterly

Elements Came to Rescue and Obliterated Hager's Lineaments at Harrodsburg.

OPPOSITION SPEAKER LOSES.

Harrodsburg, Ky., Oct. 9.—Isn't it funny how the name Willson makes the Democratic machine turn somersaults and perform other circus tricks when he comes to town?

About a week ago the fact that Harrodsburg and Mercer county would give the Republican nominee for governor such a rousing reception that it would go down in the annals of the section, became apparent to the local representatives of the little Frankfort ring, and they at once began to get busy.

First they wrote to Democratic headquarters to send along all the Hager photographs on tap. Then they asked for a speaker. In both they were accommodated.

Then they engaged the court house which will hold comfortably about 200 people, it being the best they could do, as the Republican managers had reserved the opera house for Mr. Willson.

Sunday they busied themselves in taking the reproductions of the handsome features of the Democratic candidate all over the town until not a tree or fence escaped the adornment. That night the zealous machine representatives purchased some boxes of blue crayon, and placed them in the hands of a dozen boys, with instructions to decorate. And the boys did their work well.

Early next morning the people of Harrodsburg were treated to the novel spectacle of hundreds of inscriptions, "Vote for Hager for governor," in artistic scrolls, which covered the sidewalks of the town. It was noticeable that this decoration of the sidewalks was in blue chalk. Perhaps it was indicative of their idea of what Mr. Hager's mind will be the day after election.

Name is Obliterated. A beneficent Providence, however, interfered with the plans of the sidewalk decoration, for it rained—and how it rained. Suffice to say that the name of Hager was as completely obliterated by the downfall as it will be on the election day by votes.

Profiting by the example of a certain Mr. Newman at Winchester, the local machine representatives set the time for the address of their speaker, W. B. Smith, of Lexington, for the morning hours, but singularly enough precisely the same thing that happened at Winchester happened here this morning.

The Democratic speaker was in the midst of an entertaining presentation of what he had to say, to an audience of about 200 people in the court house when Mr. Willson drove by in an open Victoria on the way from the railroad station to the hotel. Some one standing in the door of the court house espied him and shouted "There goes Willson."

It was enough for the crowd. Mr. Smith's audience suddenly became fired with Willson enthusiasm and bolted in the direction of the rapidly moving carriage containing the Republican leader. And Mr. Smith was left with an empty house.

Hard Times in Kansas.

The old days of grasshoppers and drouth are almost forgotten in the prosperous Kansas of today; although a citizen of Codell, Earl Shamburg, has not yet forgotten a hard time he encountered. ATTEMPT TO PURCHASE REGISTRATION CERTIFICATES

A Penitentiary Offense—Both Purchaser and Seller Guilty.

Subsection 15, of section 1583 of the Kentucky statutes provides, that "Any person or persons, who shall attempt to prevent, or prevent, any voter from casting his ballot, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and upon conviction, be confined in the penitentiary for a period of years, or not less than one nor more than five years for each offense."

Section 1591, of the Kentucky person guilty of receiving a bribe for his vote at an election, shall be fined from fifty to five hundred dollars and be excluded from office and suffrage." And subsection 3 of said section reads that "whoever shall receive money or other thing of value to be used for the purpose of procuring or influencing a vote or votes shall be deemed to have been bribed."

Every attempt to purchase a registration certificate is an attempt to prevent a voter from casting his ballot, and renders the offender liable to the penitentiary penalty. And every voter who receives money or other thing of value for his registration certificate, does so for the purpose of influencing his vote, is guilty of being bribed, and is liable to the penalty fixed by the law.

Section 1591, of the Kentucky statutes further provides: "That this chapter shall be liberally construed, so as to prevent any evasions of its prohibitions and penalties by shift or device." And further requires, that violations of these laws shall be "given specially in charge to the grand jury of every county first convened after any general election."

The executive committee of the Republican party in Paducah have information that attempts have been made to purchase registration certificates in this election, and are preparing the evidence necessary to convict the offenders on warrants to be taken out before the committing magistrates of the city.

The less competent a man is the harder it seems to be for him to admit the truth.

HARTJE CASE

TAKES NEW TURN WHEN HUSBAND PRESENTS LETTER.

Produces Proof That False Testimony Was Adduced By His Wife in Lower Court.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 9.—Just on the eve of the handing down of a decision by the superior court in the divorce suit of Augustus Hartje against his wife, Mary Scott Hartje, sensational evidence was filed in Philadelphia on Saturday with the superior court by Hartje which caused the superior court judges to hold back the decision.

It is understood that the entire court agreed in the finding and that it upheld the lower court, which refused to grant a divorce to Hartje. The new evidence, however, may result in an entirely new decision and cause the superior court at least to grant a new trial to the millionaire paper manufacturer.

The new evidence consists mainly of letters alleged to have been written by Mrs. Hartje to two sisters, Helen and Ida, to Howard Lappe, to whom Ida was engaged to be married, and with whom she eloped to Youngstown only to be brought back by her father before the ceremony was performed. It is alleged by Hartje that he purchased these letters from Lappe, whose attentions to Miss Ida have ceased.

There is also a sensational letter alleged to have been written to Tom Madine, the coachman, by Mrs. Hartje, in which are startling statements regarding the illness of Hartje, which leads to the belief that an attempt was made to poison him. But probably the most sensational of the evidence is contained in alleged letters from Ida and Helen Scott, in which it appears they actually formed a scheme to blackmail their own father, compelling him to give them money, or they would refuse to testify for their sister, and testify, instead, for Hartje, thus "telling the truth," as the letters intimate.

Ran Away From Home.

Louis Scott, 15 years old, ran away from Louisville with another boy, "Babe" Shaw, because Shaw promised to buy him a pair of shoes. This is the story told by the former when arrested this morning at 2 o'clock for loitering about the Illinois Central passenger station in wait for a freight train to take him to St. Louis. His companion managed to elude the police, and is still at large. Both left Louisville several days ago, and have been riding freight trains. The Scott boy's father is dead, and he stated that he would return home to his mother if the police would "fix it" with the conductors. He is being held.

Courtship is the first step and matrimony is the rest of the flight.

HAGER DARE NOT

MAKE SPEECH IN LOUISVILLE HE HAS BEEN MAKING.

His Reputation of Tyler in Principal City Would Be Quite Interesting.

Harrodsburg, Oct. 9.—In his speech here yesterday before a large crowd, Mr. Willson made a ten-strike when he challenged Auditor Hager, in order to test the sincerity of his professions of temperance and Sunday closing, to go to Louisville and make the same speech there where Mr. Tyler is a candidate for mayor, that he is making out in the country.

His speech was along the lines which he has followed during his campaign, and during its course he was liberally applauded.

One good term deserves another. Is the motto of Col. John J. Dorlan. It is a saving of thousands of dollars to a city to retain a fiscal officer, acquainted with the details and best methods of office. The same may be said of George Lehnhard, who, as city license inspector, has become thoroughly familiar with the duties of the clerk's office. Naturally, as a zealous official in enforcing license collections, Mr. Lehnhard has made some enemies, but this fact should rally to his support citizens, who appreciate devotion to duty.

If the Louisville Times' estimate of 6,000 in the crowd that greeted the Bryan special here yesterday, is a fair test of the accuracy of its crowd-ometer, we may fairly judge of the size of the crowds that greeted the special elsewhere.

The Sidney, Nova Scotia, wireless station picked up a message from Manila, 12,000 miles away. Some day special stamping trains, like the one here yesterday, will be equipped with apparatus, keyed to harmonize with instruments in the newspaper offices, and the speeches will be ticked off as they are delivered.

A PERNICIOUS DOCTRINE.
Let us suppose a respectable, patriotic citizen belongs to a certain political party and that party holds a primary nomination. There are two candidates for the nomination for an important office—one a good man and the other bad. The aforesaid r. p. citizen desires to participate in that primary and support the good man for office, because he believes it is the first duty of a citizen to see that good men are nominated by his party, and the second duty of a citizen to see that the best men are elected to office. He votes at the primary, but the bad man, a very bad man, is nominated, to oppose an excellent man for the office.

Now, the question is up to the r. p. citizen. There is no doubt as to his duty as a citizen of the United States—he must vote for the best man for office. But his party leaders tell him he is in honor bound to support the nominee of that primary, although that nominee may have won by the purchase of votes, or by the rankst fraud. Must he then support for office a man, whom he knows to be unfit and corrupt, and fasten on his own government a system of corruption that will grow to curse his own children, and impose on his neighbors and fellow citizens a bad official, simply because he participated in a primary for the very purpose of preventing that bad man from securing the nomination?

Everybody can see what the result must inevitably be. Men, who cannot conscientiously support bad men for office must refrain from participating in the primary, thus permitting the worse element to have absolute control of the party; or else, having voted at the primary, they must refrain from voting at the election, thus indirectly aiding the worse element by not opposing it.

Sometimes in a three-cornered race the primary nominee receives less than half the votes cast, and yet those who go to the primary for the express purpose of voting against him, are compelled by the pernicious doctrine of primary obligation to support him. Such belief is urged by the politicians, who see in it an opportunity to control the nominations, and at the same time bind the decent voters by an imaginary obligation.

Is a primary always fair?
Let us see what our esteemed fellow citizen, Hon. John K. Hendrick said about the Democratic primary in Kentucky in his famous Nicholasville speech:

"Governor Beckham says that it is impossible to put through a slate in a primary election. Everybody thought until it happened that it was also impossible for a committee to abolish the party convention that created it, but the governor's committee has not only accomplished that feat, but have perpetuated themselves in office for a year longer than they were elected, and the good Lord only knows how much longer they propose to hold their committee places if the usurpation is tolerated by the people. If the governor's committee can deny the party that created it the right to hold a convention and adopt a platform, and likewise perpetuate themselves in office, why may they not put the people take hold of the matter and protect themselves?
"The committee for the first time in the history of the Democratic party, created a money standard of qualification, and for the first time within the history of the party has said to the aspiring young men of Kentucky that they need not apply for official preferment unless they can afford the price."

One way to avert the danger to surrounding property in loading the oil tanks of the Standard Oil company, is to compel the removal of those tanks outside the city, as is done elsewhere.

There should be no obstruction offered to the constructing that interurban road between Paducah and Mayfield.

When those Woodmen reach Paducah October 15, they will find considerable log rolling already going on among the politicians.

THE SCHOOLS.

Nothing pleases us more than to see the sudden interest taken in the welfare of the public school by our Democratic contemporary, especially since its party nominees are not bound by any platform or any sort of obligation. In this connection we desire to call attention once more to the Republican state platform:

"We demand that the public schools of the state shall be taken and kept entirely out of politics, and that the interests and welfare of the children shall have first consideration in all public school matters."

"We call for better schools and school houses, for longer school terms in the country and better pay for the teachers, and that elections for school trustees be had on different days from other elections."

Mr. Bryan obeyed the instructions of his Kentucky sponsors and kept still about free silver and government ownership of railroads.

After mentioning Bryan's visit four days in succession, after the news features of it had been spent, and giving him a big, black three line head, conspicuously displayed on the front page Monday, The Sun feels superior to the malicious criticisms of its jealous contemporary. Most of the people, who attended the Bryan meeting yesterday read of his coming in The Sun.

BEAUTY AND WHISKY.

Wealthy Indianapolis Woman Dies of Alcoholism.

Chicago, Oct. 9.—Anna Manata, 30 years old, said to be a member of a wealthy family of Indianapolis, Ind., died suddenly under mysterious circumstances at St. Bernard's hospital yesterday. Efforts on the part of the police to obtain information were repulsed by the hospital authorities.

A man who said he was the woman's brother-in-law, arrived shortly after her death and made arrangements for her funeral. He then disappeared suddenly. The body was shipped to Indiana last night.

The only definite information the police were able to obtain was from the records of the coroner's inquest, at which a verdict of "death from alcoholism" was returned. Miss Manata was said to be a woman of great beauty and evident culture.

Go To School or Farm.

Albert Holt, 14 year old, son of E. E. Holt, Illinois Central watchman at the Sixth and Campbell street freight house, was dismissed by County Judge R. T. Lightfoot this morning on probation. If he does not go to school regularly, and report to Judge Lightfoot each Monday with a certificate of attendance from his teacher, he will be taken to the reform school. He has not been going to school, and is charged with fighting.

A few dollars in purse, a little preliminary ad, reading, and a two-hour shopping trip make a pleasant and popular combination nowadays.

DEMOCRATIC PAPER

Rakes the Machine and Its Engineers Fore and Aft.

Can the Leopard Change Its Spots?

During the Democratic primary for senator and governor last year, the Mayfield Monitor, a staunch Democratic paper, wrote the following strong indictment of the Democratic machine in Kentucky. The fact that Messrs. Hager and Beckham won in that primary does not change the force nor the truthfulness of the charges made by the Monitor. If they were true then, they are now. We submit the Monitor's article to the voters of the state that they may know what a Democratic editor in the "Gibraltar of Democracy" thinks of the Democratic machine and its engineers, Messrs. Beckham and Hager. And bear in mind that these charges were not made by a Republican and that a few months has not in the least changed the leopard's spots:

What the Fight Is.

The present campaign is not merely a fight between the "ins" and "outs," as the machine organs would have the people believe.

It is a fight of the people to dislodge the Frankfort machine, a well organized lot of politicians, banded together for the purpose of controlling all the offices of the state and filling their capacious pockets from the state treasury.

And it is a fight that is of much greater import to the people than they can at present realize because machine politics in Kentucky, as applied to the state, is comparatively a recent thing, and it is hard for the people to understand its many evils and the great danger attending its perpetuation.

Machinism represents all that is bad in politics. It is practical politics gone to seed. The greatest graft to the smallest number is the motto of the machine politician. Statesmanship and patriotism are completely eliminated from his creed. The people are all "dumb-driven cattle" to him, possessing neither private nor political rights which he is bound to respect, and beyond the means they afford for gratifying his greed for graft and lust for power excite no interest in his unconscionable soul.

The Frankfort machine is modern in every respect. The most up to date appliances for extracting money from the people's pockets and fooling them into the belief that they are being robbed for their own good are employed. Scientific experts, who know all the ins and out of machine politics, are in charge and nothing that will bring stickles into the hands of the machine or increase its power for perpetration is being neglected.

This is the machine which Beckham, Hager & Co. built, and for which they are asking a new lease of life. It has already cost the state untold thousands in extravagance and misfeasance, and what it has cost is a mere bagatelle to what it will cost if continued in power.

This is the machine which the people are fighting and which they would sweep from the face of the earth if they could realize half of its rottenness.

This is the machine which Messrs. Beckham and Hager are expecting to put them in power and give one six and the other four years more at the public crib.

This is the machine which started out to build a state capitol for eight hundred thousand dollars and asked the legislature for two millions before the foundation was completed.

This is the machine that paid $60,000 for capitol plans when they were offered plans by a reputable architect for $16,000 and this same architect offered to give a bond to build the capitol for $25,000.

This is the machine that paid $24,000 for printing, when under their contract it should not have cost $4,000; and another time gave away $12,000 or $13,000 in the same manner.

This is the same machine that paid $124,000 for extra attorney's fees to their pets in three years.

This is the machine that lowered the rate of taxation 2½ cents on the hundred and raised the value of property 25 per cent, making the tax much higher than before.

This is the machine that has taxed everything in sight and levied back taxes that it might have money to meet its wasteful and extravagant practices.

This is the machine that put the charitable institutions in the hands of Percy Haly, a Frankfort politician, who learned statesmanship in his father's saloon.

This is the machine under whose management brutalities have been practiced at the Lexington asylum that have resulted in the death of one patient and perhaps more.

This is the machine that comes up and whitewashes all such devilry, for fear it might hurt the administration and get some of its pets in prison.

This is the machine that makes poor women attendants in the asylums pay part of their $20 per month salary to Governor Beckham's campaign expenses.

This is the machine that makes all the attendants, clerks and guards at the charitable institutions contribute to the campaign expenses of the machine candidates, or lose their jobs.

This is the machine that uses the clerks in the auditor's office and all

This is the machine that created new offices and increased the salaries of old ones to the extent of $50,000 per year.

This is the machine that killed senate bill No. 26, which was intended to pay parties who were summoned for jury service and not used for the loss of time, because, would leave about $10,000 a year in the people's pockets and thus deprive the machine of the use of this amount.

This is the machine that levied the tax of $1 on the poor man's dog that they might have more of the people's money to handle.

This is the machine that created the board of control that is now paying extravagant prices for supplies for the charitable institutions, thus enriching their friends at the expense of the state.

This is the machine that created the office of fire commissioner for Mott Ayres at a salary of $3,500 per year, and the office of assistant fire commissioner to provide a soft place for Beckham Triplett, the governor's nephew, at about $2,000 per year; and the said Mott Ayres has moved his office from Frankfort to Louisville, where he is conducting Mr. Hager's campaign, while being paid by the state to do nothing.

Matchless Workmanship.

Most diseases or of spinal origin. That is a characteristic generalization of Osteopathy in a nutshell, and is a contention that has never been disproved.

The Osteopathic diagnosis, and treatment are new and original, and its percentage of cures have attracted wide attention. This is history that cannot be successfully challenged.

We apply in a new way and with new force, old principles that are a part of the recognized, but theoretical teachings of every school of practice, but in an unsystematic form.

You cannot study the anatomy of the spinal column without marveling that it so seldom gets out of order. It is the most matchless piece of workmanship in all mechanics, and the wonder is that it should, sometimes, from the way it is abused, do its work at all.

By all laws of physics, the spine is liable at any moment to get out of order. It is subject to slips, wrenches, pressures, deadlocks, sprains, contractions and congestions—any one of which require only an intelligent engineer, to adjust, to relieve and cure.

The Osteopath is that engineer.

In just a few moments I can easily explain to you why and how Osteopathy is achieving such a wonderful success in curing all kinds of chronic and acute illness, and I shall take great pleasure in doing so.

Just now you may have a touch of the Fall ailment, to which we Paducahans are heir. If so, let me tell you how easily, how quickly such ailments yield to the Osteopathic treatment.

MORE REASONS Why We Deserve Your Drug Store Patronage:

A prescription is an order from a doctor to a druggist for a specified amount of medicine of a certain kind and quality with directions for its use by the patient. Experience has taught most physicians that in many instances medicinal preparations made by certain firms give better results than others that may be had for perhaps half the money. For this reason a doctor often names a certain brand of medicine which he wants used in his prescription. Very often it is easy for a druggist to use the cheaper brand. This practice on the part of the druggist is called substituting.

The physicians of Paducah know that we do not substitute.

Our immense stock enables us to give exactly what the doctor orders. Furthermore, business integrity is not a mere jest with us. It is the foundation of our large and steadily increasing prescription business. All the doctors know that our name on the label guarantees the integrity of the medicine.

Bring us your prescriptions.

Ibsen Lecture and Informal Reception.

Mrs. Sarah E. Dunbar, of the Jane Corcoran company, gave an Ibsen interpretation yesterday afternoon at the Woman's club house, under the auspices of the literary department of the club. The audience was a cultured and representative one and the largest present at a lecture this season. Mrs. Dunbar made a most pleasing impression and is a woman of commanding personality. She prefaced her lecture with a review of the growth of the drama, from the beginning of it to Shakespeare's time. Then stating it was not so far a cry as many would think from Shakespeare to Ibsen, she spoke of the condition of life in Norway at the time of Henrik Ibsen's birth, and followed up his life and development of it in his work. She discussed his plays and the problems they presented and gave extracts from his critics, notably Shaw, Howells and Huneker. Mrs. Dunbar was gracefully introduced by Mrs. Muscoe Burnett, the literary chairman. The auditorium was filled and many were in the hall and on the back porch, which opens with French windows from the auditorium. Fewer men were present, who viewed the lecture variously, according to their humor, perhaps.

An informal reception was held after the lecture, to introduce Mrs. Dunbar socially and as a club woman. Tea and wafers were served in the attractive library of the club. Mrs. Oscar L. Gregory poured the tea and was assisted by Mrs. Henry Rudy, Mrs. Percy Paxton and Miss Blanche Hills.

CHARITY CLUB

ELECTS OLD OFFICERS AGAIN FOR THIS YEAR.

Interesting report by Jap Toner, Secretary and Agent of the Organization.

The Charity club met this morning at the Woman's club house. It was the first meeting for the fall and a great deal of especial and routine business was under consideration. The officers were re-elected as follows: President, Mrs. George C. Wallace; secretary, Mrs. Edward Bringham; treasurer, Mrs. John W. Scott. The eight district chairmen were retained from last year, viz: Mesdames Charles Kiger, James Welle, Will Farley, John W. Scott, C. H. Sherrill, Jacob Wallerstein, T. C. Leech, R. T. Lightfoot. Mr. Jap Toner will be continued as general secretary of the club for this year. Mr. Toner's report of the work for the summer and since the last regular meeting was a most comprehensive one, and abounded in good suggestions. It is probable that some of the points he made will be adopted. The club is doing an excellent work and much of it is due to the executive ability and energy of Mr. Toner. Several committees were appointed for special work that were continued for the next meeting.

BOXES OF BUMBLE BEES SENT TO PHILIPPINES.

Washington, Oct. 9.—In response to a rush order cabled from the Philippines two cigar boxes full of bumble bees are today hurrying across the continent bound for the islands.

The Philippine specialists of the Agricultural department have been making exhaustive experiments in Luzon in the cross fertilization of certain plants. Repeated tests with the common or busy bee showed it to be unequal to the task, but complete success crowned the efforts of the scientists when they tried the bumble bees, the hereditary enemy of the small boy. As the season in which the bumble bee can make himself useful in the fertilization is rapidly nearing an end in the Philippines, the experts yesterday cabled the department to rush the shipment. So last night the bees started, provided with every comfort the ingenuity of the Agricultural department could devise.

Advice to Women

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

All sick women are invited to write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for advice. She is the Mrs. Pinkham who has been advising sick women free of charge for more than twenty years, and before that she assisted her mother-in-law, Lydia E. Pinkham, in advising. Thus she is especially well qualified to give advice to sick women. Write today, don't wait until too late.

Mrs. Pinkham never violates the confidence thus entrusted to her, and although she is constantly receiving testimonials from women who have been benefited by her advice and medicine, never in all her experience has she published such a letter without the full consent, and often by special request of the writer. Neither has she ever disposed of her confidential letters in any other way. Every one of the hundreds of thousands of letters written to her by confiding women she has to-day under lock and key in the Company's laboratory at Lynn, Mass. Remember, the best medicine for women is

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

EVERY WOMAN SHOULD CONSIDER THESE FACTS

First, that almost every operation in our hospitals, performed upon women, became necessary because of neglect of such symptoms as Backache, Irregularities, Displacements, Pain in the Side, Dragging Sensations, Dizziness and Sleeplessness.

Second, that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, has overcome more cases of female ills than any other one medicine. It regulates, strengthens and restores women's health and is invaluable during the period of Change of Life.

Third, the great volume of unsolicited and grateful testimonials on file at the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., many of which are from time to time being published by special permission, give absolute evidence of the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound over the ills of women.

IMMIGRATION

LAW IS VIOLATED BY OFFER OF EMPLOYMENT.

Effort of Certain Industries in South To Encourage Labor Importation.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 9.—Attorney General Bonaparte has rendered another decision interpreting the new immigration law.

The opinion rendered by the attorney general declares that when a state, through its regular board of immigration, holds out the promise of employment to an intending immigrant, even although no employer is specified, and although the immigrant is free to secure any employment, he sees fit, there is a distinct violation of the contract labor law.

The attorney general does not, it has been stated, insist that a state shall not pay the passage of an immigrant, but he does hold that no promise of employment whatsoever must be made, either by a state or an individual. This is a blow which seems to dispose entirely of the movement which had gained such headway in the south to induce Europeans, by promise of employment, and by payment of passage money, to go to the south instead of the congested north Atlantic cities.

Sea Gives up its Lemons.

Beachcombers garnered an unusual harvest this morning when, as the tide went down, the subsiding surf, which for the last two days has been pounding the shore with almost hurricane force, gave up thousands of fresh lemons.

Women and children flocked to the shore with the men, and the rest of the day the engine drivers of the fast trains rushing up and down the Sandy Hook line ran with the hearts in their mouths as the people, laden with lemons, dodged their locomotives. The lemons were thickest between Galilee and Seabright, south of this point, but tonight they are all about gone.

Oldtimers who remember when the Russian broke in two at Long Branch at the end of the blue glass craze in the '70s, provided the coast with decorative building material which is used in ever smaller fragments, until this very day, recall tonight how the ocean once gave up a boa constrictor that measured forty feet from nose to tail, at Pleasant, and at Bay Head, since then, hundreds of boxes of cigars which wouldn't smoke even when dried out, but none could remember that the Atlantic had ever before produced a lemon crop.—New York Times.

We defy anyone to show where anything has ever been done by the Democratic administration to enforce the Sunday-closing law, with the exception of the recent spasm in Louisville, which was done for political effect. And yet the law has been on the statute books for years.

The Democratic platform, as promulgated by Candidate Hager, does not contain a single reference to the temperance question. Was this an oversight or was it done deliberately?

REASONABLE RULES FOR RHEUMATISM.

Western Specialist Explains a Few Simple Rules for the Avoidance and Cure of Rheumatism, Kidney and Bladder Troubles.

Dr. George Edmund Flood states that rheumatism and the various forms of kidney and bladder troubles are among the most easily curable diseases—that is, when they are treated in a sensible manner.

According to Dr. Flood, those persons suffering from any of these ailments should exercise the greatest moderation in the consumption of rich foods. Dr. Flood has met with great success in his practice in the treatment of these complaints, and he has advised all of his patients to substitute for such a diet as we have just mentioned, the simpler and more nourishing soups, broths, fresh milk, fresh vegetables and plenty of pure water—lots of water.

But, says Dr. Flood, observance of these rules will not suffice to effect a cure, although such observance is necessarily of the greatest assistance in the treatment. During all his practice, that is, in the treatment of Rheumatism, Kidney and Bladder troubles, this eminent physician has employed one simple prescription which, he states, has proven itself of unvarying curative value. Dr. Flood has kindly consented that we reproduce a copy of this famous prescription in this column for the benefit of our readers.

This is the prescription:
Fluid Extract Cascara Aromatic... 1-2 ounce
Concentrated Barkola Compound... 1 ounce
Aromatic Elixir... 4 ounces
Adult dose, one teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime; children, one-fourth to one-half teaspoonful after meals.

Dr. Flood says it is pleasant to take and may be filled by any druggist, anywhere, or, better still, you can get the ingredients yourself and mix them at home by shaking well in a bottle. Dr. Flood guarantees the success of this prescription if taken according to directions.

GIRLS EAGER

TO GET ON BASKETBALL TEAM OF HIGH SCHOOL.

Athletic Association Starts With Enthusiasm and Numbers—News of the Schools.

Great enthusiasm is manifested in the organization of the girls' athletic association in the High school, and all are eager to at once organize basketball teams. First steps towards organization of teams were taken this morning when the lower floor of the Washington building was selected for practice. All equipment for the game has been ordered and is expected here in a few days. Basketball requires little equipment, only the ball and baskets. Portable supports for the baskets will be built by Superintendent of Buildings Fred Hoyer before the equipment is here, that practice be not delayed.

Miss Jennie Sloan, a teacher at the Longfellow school, is ill today, and Miss Vera Johnston was appointed substitute. Miss Johnston is a member of the cadet class.

The musical program arranged for this morning was postponed until tomorrow morning. Misses Ham and Brazelton will play a piano duet, and Mr. Richard Scott will sing a choice selection.

IT IS NOT DENIED

It is not denied that nearly every member of the state committees hold a fat job under the Beckham-Hager administration. It is not denied that they manipulated members of the last senatorial caucus to vote against the will of their constituents by trading them jobs in the public service of the state; it is not denied that Percy Haly and Milton Board have been placed at the head of the board of control, which has the expenditure of all the money for the purchase of supplies of the charitable institutions and reformatories of the state; therefore, the machine adherents cannot abuse Gen. Hays because these things are true and the good people are inquiring into them. It cannot be denied that the machine acted corruptly in giving these jobs to state committeemen for the purpose of controlling the action of the committees of the party; that it acted corruptly in trading jobs for votes against Blackburn; that nothing less than corrupt purpose could be behind the appointment of such men as Haly and Board on the board of control. Gen. Hays cannot stop things as attorney general, but as governor he could and would.—Henderson Gleaner (Dem.)

And this same Beckham-Hager combine is asking to be endorsed by the people of the state. With the record before them, will they do it?

A Democratic campaign circular says:

"It is under Democratic administration that a new Kentucky capitol is being erected, and without imposing any additional burden upon the taxpayers of the state."

But the circular fails to state that the capitol is being built with the $1,200,000 fund collected from the national government on an old war claim that ought to have been collected long ago. And it is true that the tax rate has not been increased, but the new system of licenses adds a tremendous burden to the citizen and increases the state's income, which is being disbursed with such prodigality by the Democratic administration.

State Tourist Department.
One of the numerous activities of the New Zealand government is a "state tourists' department." The report for the year ended June 30 announces that 9,684 sight-seers were hustled around the city beauty spots as against 7,112 during the previous year. They left about $600,000 behind them. The branch offices of the department in Sydney and Melbourne have proved so successful that others are to be started elsewhere. Moreover, a new officer is to be attached to the High Commissioner's staff in London, and he will specialize on bringing New Zealand's attractiveness as a tourists' resort under the notice of the traveling public of Great Britain and Ireland.—New York Tribune.

Women Who Wear Well.

It is astonishing how great a change a few years of married life often make in the appearance and disposition of many women. The freshness, the charm, the beauty which is rarely found in a single woman, is only a dim shadow, a faint echo of the charming maiden. There are two reasons for this change, ignorance and neglect. Few young women appreciate the shock to the system through the change which comes with marriage and motherhood. Many neglect to deal with the unpleasant pelvic drains and weaknesses which too often come with marriage and motherhood, not understanding that this secret drain is robbing the cheek of its freshness and the form of its fairness.

As surely as the general health suffers when there is derangement of the health of the delicate female organs, so surely will these organs be established in health by the use of Dr. Pierce's Female Prescriptions. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Ingredients on label—contains no alcohol or harmful habit-forming drugs. Made wholly of those native, American, medicinal roots most highly recommended by leading medical authorities of all the several schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments.

For nursing mothers, or for those broken down in health by too frequent bearing of children, also for the expectant mother, to prepare the system for the coming of baby and making its advent easy and almost painless, there is no medicine quite so good as "Favorite Prescription." It can do no harm in any condition of the system. It is a most potent invigorating tonic and strengthening nerve tonic adapted to woman's delicate system by a physician of large experience in the treatment of woman's peculiar ailments.

Different Backbones.

A boy in the physiology class of a school in South Boston gave the following definition of the difference between the backbone of a man and the backbone of a cat.

"A man's backbone runs up and down while the backbone of a cat runs sideways. A cat is liable to split and throw up her backbone."

Another boy said of the spine: "The spine is a long bone reaching from the skull to the heels. It has a hinge in the middle so that you can sit down otherwise you would have to sit standing."—October Lippincott's.

CHAPTER XV.

FOR once the humorous expression had vanished from Captain Kemp's face, and that good natured man sat in the dimly drawing room of the flat a picture of perplexity. Dorothy had told him the story of the nihilist, saying she intended to purchase the yacht and outlining what she proposed to do with it when it was her own. Now she sat silent opposite the genial captain, while Katherine stood by the window and talked enough for two, sometimes waxing indignant and occasionally giving in terse language an opinion of her father, as is the blessed privilege of every girl born in the land of the free, while the father took the measure of the unprotesting mildness of his nature.

"My dear girls, you really must listen to reason. What you propose to do is so absurd that it doesn't even admit of argument. Why, it's a filibustering expedition, that's what it is. You girls are as crazy as Walker of Nicaragua. Do you imagine that a retired captain of the United States navy is going to take command of a pirate craft of far less legal standing than the Alabama, for then we were at war, but now we are at peace. Do you actually propose to attack the domain of a friendly country? Oh!" cried the captain, with a mighty explosion of breath, for at this point his supply of language entirely gave out.

"No one would know anything about it," persisted Katherine.

"Not know about it? With a crew of men picked up here in New York and coming back to New York? Not know about it? Bless my soul, the papers would be full of it before your men were an hour on shore. In the first place, you'd never find the rock."

"Then what's the harm of going in search of it?" demanded his daughter. "Besides that, Johnson knows exactly where it is."

"Johnson, Johnson! You're surely not silly enough to believe Johnson's cock and bull story?"

"I believe every syllable he uttered. The man's face showed that he was speaking the truth."

"But, my dear Kate, you didn't see him at all, as I understand the yarn. He was here alone with you, was he not, Dorothy?"

Dorothy smiled sadly. "I told Kate all about it and gave my own impression of the man's appearance."

"You are too sensible a girl to place any credit in what he said surely?"

"I did believe him nevertheless," replied Dorothy.

"Why, look you here. False in one thing, false in all. I'll just take a single point. He speaks of a spring sending water through the cells up there in the rock. Now, that is an impossibility. Wherever a spring exists, it comes from a source higher than itself."

"There are lots of springs up in the mountains," interrupted Katherine. "I know one on Mount Washington that is ten times as high as the Rock in the Baltic."

"Quite so, Katherine, quite so, but nevertheless there is a lake, subterranean or above ground, which feeds your White Mountain spring, and such a lake must be situated higher than the spring is. Why, girl, you ought to study hydrometeorology as well as chemistry. Here is a rock jutting up in midocean—"

"It's in the Baltic, near the Russian coast," snapped Kate, "and I've no doubt there are mountains in Finland that contain the lake which feeds the spring."

"How far is that rock from the Finnish coast, then?"

"Two miles and a half," said Kate, "as an arrow speeding from a bow."

"Captain, we don't know how far it is from the coast," amended Dorothy.

"I'll never believe the thing exists at all."

"Why, yes it does, father. How can you speak like that? Don't you know Lieutenant Drummond fired at it?"

"How do you know it was the same rock?"

"Because the rock fired back at him. There can't be two like that in the Baltic."

"No, nor one either," said the captain, nearing the end of his patience.

"Captain Kemp," said Dorothy very soothingly, as if she desired to quell the rising storm, "you take the allegation about the spring of water to prove that Johnson was telling truths. I expect him here within an hour, and I will arrange that you have an opportunity, privately, of cross examining him. I think when you see the man and listen to him you will believe. What makes me so sure that he is telling the truth is the fact that he mentioned the foreign vessel firing at this rock, which I knew to be true, and which he could not possibly have learned anything about."

"He might very well have learned all particulars from the papers, Dorothy. They were full enough of the subject at the time, and remembering this, he thought to strengthen his story by—"

Katherine interrupted with great scorn. "By adding verisimilitude to an otherwise bald and unconvincing narrative."

"Quite so, Kate. Exactly what I was going to say myself. But, to come back to the project itself, granting the existence of the rock, granting the truth of Johnson's story, granting everything, granting even that the young men are imprisoned there, of which we have not the slightest proof, we could no more succeed in capturing that place from a frail pleasure yacht."

"It's built like a cruiser," said Katherine.

"Even if it were built like a battleship we would have no chance whatever. Why, that rock might defy a regular fleet. Our venture would simply be a marine Jameson raid which would set the whole world laughing when people came to hear of it."

"Johnson said he could take it with half a dozen men."

"No, Kate," corrected Dorothy; "he said the very reverse; that two or three determined men on the rock with repeating rifles could defeat a host. It was I who suggested that we should throw a shell and then rush the entrance in the confusion."

Captain Kemp threw up his hands in a gesture of despair.

"Great heavens, Dorothy Amhurst, whom I have always regarded as the mildest, sweetest and most charming of girls, to hear you calmly propose to throw a shell among a lot of innocent men defending their own territory against a perfectly unauthorized invasion! Throw a shell, say you, as if you were talking of tossing a copper to a beggar! Oh, Lord, I'm growing old! What will become of this younger generation? Well, I give it up. Dorothy, my dear, whatever will happen to those unfortunate Russians I shall never recover from the shock of your shell. The thing is absolutely impossible. Can't you see that the moment you get down to details? How are you going to procure your shells or your shell firing gun? They are not to be bought at the first hardware store you come to on Sixth avenue."

"Johnson says he can get them," proclaimed Kate, with finality.

"Oh, damn Johnson! Dorothy, I beg your pardon, but really this daughter of mine, combined with that Johnson of yours, is just a little more than I can bear."

"Then what are we to do?" demanded his daughter. "Sit here with folded hands?"

"That would be a great deal better than what you propose. You mustn't do something sane. You mustn't involve a pair of friendly countries in war. Of course the United States would utterly disclaim your act and discredit me if I were lunatic enough to undertake such a wild goose chase, which I'm not. But, on the other hand, if two of our girls undertook such an expedition no man can predict the public clamor that might arise. Why, when the newspapers get hold of a question you never know where they will end it. Undoubtedly you two girls should be sent to prison, and with equal undoubtedness the American people wouldn't permit it."

"You bet they wouldn't," said Katherine, dropping into slang.

"Well, then, if they wouldn't there's war."

"One moment, Captain Kemp," said Dorothy again in her mildest tones, for voices had again begun to run high. "You spoke of doing something sane. You understand the situation. What should you counsel us to do?"

The captain drew a long breath and leaned back in his chair.

"There, dad, it's up to you," said Katherine. "Let us hear your proposal, and then you'll learn how easy it is to criticize."

TRAGIC DEATH

E. D. WILSON, LUMBER MAN, KILLED BY TRAIN.

Body Is Caught in Truck Frame and Carried 20 Miles Before Being Discovered.

E. D. Wilson, a lumber man of Dickson, Tenn., met a tragic death yesterday at White Bluff, Tenn., while attempting to catch the fast north bound N. C. & St. L. train. He was hurled to the rails and drawn up into the truck frame, where his body remained for a run of 20 miles. The discovery of the mangled corpse was made at Camden, Tenn.

Wilson owned a saw mill at White Bluff, and had been there on business. He started home to Dickson, and, as the train sped by, he attempted to catch it. Wilson leaves a widow and several children. The train was delayed an hour by the accident, arriving in Paducah at 2:30 o'clock.

BRUNER'S RETORT To the Question Put by Ollie James Knocks Center.

At Benton, Marshall county, Monday, Sept. 2, a joint debate was held between Congressman Ollie James and Dr. Ben L. Bruner, Republican candidate for secretary of state. Following the plan laid down by the Democrats to stir up prejudice by keeping the Goebel assassination ever in view, Congressman James inquired:

"Would you, if governor of Kentucky, pardon Caleb Powers and others, or would you advise Wilson to pardon them?"

Dr. Bruner's reply was so straightforward and sensible, and covered the case so completely, that the vast audience, irrespective of party, arose and cheered to the echo, a fitting rebuke to the Democratic style of campaign. Dr. Bruner said:

"If I were governor of Kentucky, or were asked for advice by the governor, I would first demand a fair and impartial trial for these or any other men charged with a political crime, whether he be Democrat, Republican, Prohibitionist or Populist; white or black, and if the courts of the state persistently refused to grant him such fair and impartial trial as they have in these cases, as is attested by the court of Appeals, I would then feel disposed to either pardon or advise such pardon."

This reply should be endorsed by every honest man in the commonwealth. Give every man a square deal. No more, no less. That is the Republican doctrine at all times and under all circumstances.

The Democrats of Kentucky have placed a tax on everything, from a lemonade stand to a dog. And yet they claim that taxes have been reduced.

In charging the Democratic administration with graft and mismanagement, we have only to look to Democrats for the proof.

SUPT. A. H. EGAN JUMPS TO SAFETY

Standing on Caboose When Cars Leave Track

Illinois Central Superintendent Alert and Gets Quickly Out of Harm's Way.

DELAYED BRYAN'S SPECIAL.

Leaping from the top of a box car while a "test train" was doing something like 30 miles an hour, Superintendent A. H. Egan, of the Louisville division of the Illinois Central, escaped from a freight wreck yesterday afternoon at Princeton. The wreck blocked north Princeton yards, and delayed the Bryan special train and other trains over the Paducah district, an hour.

The train was made up of loaded coal and box cars, being a "test train." The engine, No. 909, was in charge of Engineer Walker, a Princeton "turn around" engineer, and was pulling 1,800 tons. Superintendent Egan stood on the last box car next to the caboose waving to Walker to "cut her open," and immediately the train jumped forward, gaining speed at each revolution. Suddenly there was a jar, and the big division superintendent saw cars leaving the rails near the engine. He had jumped, alighting and out of harm's way. He sprained his foot in the jump, but this morning is all right.

"Five cars left the rails, and it required hard work on the part of the Princeton wrecking crew to clear the track in an hour. The cause of the derailment is thought to have been a brake shoe letting down and tearing away the guard rail. The damage will be comparatively light."

The Brotherhood of Railway Carmen will meet tonight in regular session.

Today windows in the Paducah Illinois Central machine shops are being cleaned and will be followed by a general cleaning up of all shop buildings, preparatory to the annual fall inspection to be held some time this month.

This morning members of the "shop committee" held a conference with General Foreman Joe Walker and his sub-foremen to present a grievance regarding seniority of machinists. Shop men desire that seniority be shown preference in the assignment of positions and it is understood that the shop men will be granted the request. The matter is passed on by the general foreman and his decision referred to the master mechanic for ratification or rejection.

The report circulated several weeks ago that A. L. Hooper, a well known conductor formerly running between Paducah and Centralia on the Illinois Central, was dead, proved erroneous. He is still alive in California, and the report grew out of his wife being called to California to his bedside when he was seriously ill.

Saturday at Chicago a meeting of switchmen of the Illinois Central will be held to discuss a demand for four more cents the hour, and an eight hour work day.

Dr. Earl Weeks, interne at the Illinois Central hospital, has gone to Chicago to take a special course in the Northwestern University.

L. E. McCabe, superintendent of the Nashville division of the Illinois Central, was in Paducah yesterday, boarding the Bryan special at Princeton.

So many times when the baby is pale and fretful, the mother does not know what to do. A bottle of this medicine would bring color to his cheeks and laughter to his eyes. Give it a trial. Sold by J. A Wu Ting Fang Story. The statement that Wu Ting-Fang is coming back to Washington recalls a story that Robertus Love told me some time ago. Robertus was on the staff of one of the St. Louis papers. When the distinguished Celestial visited that city, and was assigned to interview him. After a brief fusillade of general questions he became personal.

"Are you married?" he glibly asked.

"No," replied Robertus.

"Why not?"

"My salary is too small."

"Why is it too small?"

"I don't know."

"Would you marry if they gave you more salary?"

"Yes."

Here the diplomat was called away and Robertus returned to the office.

"Get it?" the city editor called to him.

"Yes. But it's largely personal."

"That's all right. Give us exactly what the old man said. We want it characteristic."

So Robertus wrote out the conversation word for word, and it appeared in the morning paper exactly as he wrote it.

In the afternoon he was called into

HERSEY STIRS NATION TO NEED OF AIR FLEET.

Washington, Oct. 9.—Major Henry B. Hersey's statement that the government and people of the United States are far behind the European countries in the matter of aerial navigation, and that it is a necessity for this country to begin construction of an aerial fleet, are indorsed by practically every officer in the signal corps of the war department.

It was admitted that considerable activity has been displayed recently; that the value of military dirigibles was now admitted by all authorities; that the signal corps was secretly making efforts to drill enlisted men and excite interest in this branch of the service; that the contract for one balloon has been practically closed, and that the next congress will be asked to appropriate a considerable sum for the establishment of an aerial fleet for the war department.

Despite the fact that one dirigible balloon is to be contracted for by the United States government as soon as the necessary funds are forthcoming, it is felt that the rapid progress in this line shown by France, Germany and England makes the establishment of an aerial fleet as necessary as the keeping of a navy.

At the request of Professor Willis L. Moore, of the United States weather bureau, Secretary Wilson of the department of agriculture today authorized Major Hersey to represent the government in the international aeronautic cup race from St. Louis, October 21. Major Hersey has just returned from Spitzbergen, where he was assisting the Wellman-Chicago Record-Herald polar expedition. He will use the balloon in which Lieutenant Lahm won the international aeronautic race held in Europe last year.

Hurt in "Side Swipe."

Caught between a caboose and engine, unable to get into the engine cab or to escape from being caught as the two sides swiped, Walter Mobley, a colored brakeman on the Paducah district of the Illinois Central, was injured yesterday afternoon in the Central City yards, and is in the railroad hospital here for treatment. Mobley was standing on the engine steps, several feet below the cab floor. He failed to notice a freight car being kicked into a siding and his engine was not in the clear, a side swipe resulting. Mobley's right hip and side were bruised and his head lacerated.

TURNER MAKES CONFESSION.

Tells of Killing His Wife, and Also Lays Bare Other Crimes.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Oct. 9.—Ed Turner, on trial in the criminal court for the murder of his child wife, Lillie Turner, yesterday confessed his guilt, and said that he committed the crime because his wife was untrue to him and defied him when he upbraided her for infidelity. Turner told the story of his life from the time he was ten years old, and a more revolting recital could hardly be imagined.

ASSISTANT FOR THE YARD MASTER

Appointed to Assist in Relieving Congestion

More Help for General Yardmaster Sullivan in Paducah Is Afforded.

SUPT. EGAN IS INTERESTED.

Repeated congestion of freight cars in Paducah Illinois Central yards caused Illinois Central officials to awaken to the necessity of a larger force of yard officials, and this morning a new office was created, that of "assistant general yardmaster with jurisdiction over entire Paducah terminals." A. F. Beyers, who has worked in yards all over the south and east, has been appointed to the position, and assumed charge of his new duties this morning.

In the appointment of Mr. Beyers it is thought serious blockades will be precluded in the future, as there will be sufficient officers in authority to keep freight evenly distributed. Besides General Yardmaster Sullivan and Assistant Beyers, there are three other officers in authority. They are R. O. Houston, assistant yardmaster with authority over yards at night; E. Moore, who occupies the position of day yardmaster in south yards, and Thomas Danaher, who looks after the shop yards during the day. All are under General Yardmaster Sullivan.

Mr. Beyers was brought here by Supt. A. H. Egan, who arrived from the Louisville division yesterday afternoon. Mr. Egan has been forced to devote a great deal of his time for several months to Paducah yards, and the creation of a new local office, brings relief to him in a great measure.

HIGH SCHOOL

LINE UP IS ANNOUNCED FOR GAME NEXT FRIDAY.

First Gridiron Struggle of Season Will Take Place With the Culley's.

Lovers of football are looking forward to the initial game of the season here, to be played Friday afternoon between Paducah High school team and The Culley's, with as much interest as those who will participate in the game.

The High school team is working hard on signals and team work, and has a shade the better of the Culley's in practice, having enjoyed daylight work while the Culley's have to work at night under electric light. The Culley's will outweigh the High school boys, however.

Members of the Culley team are mostly boys, who were on the High school team last year, and great rivalry is manifested by members of the two squads. The Culley's will be handicapped by the absence of their regular coach, Roscoe Reed, who is ill, but are confident of victory.

This morning announcement of the lineup to meet the Culley's was made by the High school management as follows: Reeder, right end; Wilhelm, left end; Rock, left guard; Randle, right tackle; Hearth, center; Tucker, quarter; Burton, full; Elliott, captain and left half; Cave, right half. Leo Keller is coaching the High school squad and Henry Rudy will be the referee. The Culley team has not announced its line up yet.

Cadet Class.

Supt. John Carnegie will meet with the cadet class this afternoon to hear a report from each of the five members on experience in watching active school work. Each member of the class is assigned to a room to watch regular teachers conduct the classes. Superintendent Carnegie finds that this plan is the most beneficial for the training of prospective teachers.

Pay for Building.

Yesterday afternoon last payment of $250 on the Longfellow school property, at Fifth street and Kentucky avenue, was made by the Odd Fellow lodges. President Potter, of the Odd Fellows' Building company, paid the money to himself as president of the school board.

WILLSON STATES
HIS POSITION

"I will not dip the good old Republican ship into the mire of dirty politics by allowing myself to be dragged into the Powers controversy in this campaign for good government in Kentucky," resolutely and emphatically declared Augustus E. Willson, the Republican nominee for governor, in his speech at Barbourville, to a crowd estimated at 3,000 persons, all neighbors and town folk of Caleb Powers, and all keyed up to the highest tension of expectancy as to what Mr. Willson would say in reply to Mr. Hager's quotation propounded at Lexington.

"All that I can promise you," he added, "is that if I am elected governor of Kentucky Mr. Powers will have a fair and honest trial before a fair and impartial judge and a non-partisan jury, and this applies to all men under indictment in connection with the Goebel affair, who will come back to Kentucky for trial when I send for them."

"All of these men will have a fair trial if it is the last act of my life, and in order that there may be no charges of favoritism made, they will be tried before a Democratic judge if I find that he is the best man fitted to perform this important service to the state."

"Mr. Hager, in his speech at Lexington, said that he would not pardon Mr. Powers. I won't promise you that he will be pardoned. I do not consider it fitting for any lawyer to tell the people what he will do in advance of a trial and record. If he makes such a promise he will appeal only to the unworthy passions of men."

"Mr. Hager, in the miserable rancor of party hatred has seen fit to drag the matter into this campaign, and I throw it back into his teeth and resent the implication that I or the Republican party would release Mr. Powers without a fair trial and a fair record of the case. And we have the right to assume that he has not had a fair trial because a Democratic court of appeals has had their say so."

"If you elect me governor I pledge you to observe my oath of office, the Constitution and the law as becomes an officer of the law, a gentleman and Kentuckian. No man may ask me if I will pardon him if he is guilty. I am a full grown man, no child, and have the nerve to say right here before you just what I will do and no more."
